‘Feng Shui’ is an ‘Ancient Chinese Art of Placement’.

The principles of Feng Shui touch upon space and time, you can apply it to a person, relationships, career, home and plot of land, food or so many other aspects or issues.

Feng Shui has time tested base of theories which include:

The Theory of Five Elements, the theory of Five Celestial Animals, Land Forms, Flying Stars, Ba-Gua, Compass School, Black Hat Feng Shui and so on.....

It essentially aims at harnessing the vital life force energy called 'Chi' to cleanse, heal and enhance the environment. It brings about magical transformation in living spaces and lives with the use of placement, symbolism, color art and designs.

The Four Pillars of Destiny, Nine-Ki-Astrology and various other branches cover a vast spectrum of living.

The Theory of Five Elements

The Creative/Control Cycle of Elements:

The Five basic Elements are represented by Water, Wood, Fire, Earth, and Metal. These elements should not be confused to literally symbolize the elements but rather to simply understand the feel of energy in the natural process of creation, destruction or control. They make the understanding easier. More
